Hey Emily, happy Thursday. Here is a version from late summer (since then, we've integrated and formatted it as one of our Appendices and I don't want you to have to wade through that 1000-page document). There are some formatting and HERO errors in this version but I think it conveys the methods you want. Let me know if not. -A

Good morning Andrew,
Hope you are having a good week. Kris thought the SEM for formaldehyde might be a good template for the G-agent Provisional Advisory Level assessment update. Would you be willing to share it with me? Thank you, Emily
